

Build the Foundation of a Good Remote Team

Course Description

When employees shift to remote work the way they are managed needs to shift, too. In this workshop, we explore what challenges the research says leaders face, and how to empower a remote team to succeed.

Outcomes:

- Remote teams that avoid the pitfalls of remote work
- More respect with your boss/employees

Course Outline

Clarify Roles and Objectives for Your Virtual Team

- Understand psychological and emotional challenges of remote work
- Gain the ability to Interpret body language remotely
- Keep remote employees motivated
- How to Structure Feedback Sessions with Remote Team Members
- Setting Clear Expectations

Build and Maintain Trust and Cohesiveness

- How to Build the 4 Parts of Trust in Leadership
- Structure Reporting Sessions
- Create Remote Inclusivity and the Appearance of Fair Behavior
- Building Team Cohesiveness with Remote Employees