

Emotional Intelligence

Social Awareness

Course Description

Empathy is a critical skill in most business interactions but can be difficult to develop and refine. This course offers clear frameworks and tools for honing social awareness. Topics include empathy, attunement, theory of mind, and relationship management. By the end of the course, participants will have gained actionable, practical tools for deepening their interpersonal connections, allowing them to work more effectively and enjoyably with others.

Course Outline

- Empathy
- Attunement
- Theory of Mind
- Relationship Management

